"Of course, I cannot speak for the other members of the Board, but I see no reason why there should be any opposition to the recommendation. The park ought to be properly lighted, if it is used by the public, and it certainly will be, if I have anything to say about it."

Comptroller Myers, the only remaining member of the Board of Gas Commissioners, was not found, but he has on numerous occasions expressed his cordial sympathy with the work of THE EVENING World in procuring the proper lighting of the public parks, so that they may be used in safety by the people, and there is no reason to doubt that he will be any less willing than his colleagues to give his vote in favor of lighting East River Park.

The Park Commissioners in having the matter brought home to them have also realized the necessity of carrying out the plans originally proposed for the extension of East River Park up to Eightyeighth street, which will take in the point overlooking Astoria.

They have bestirred themselves actively and there is very little doubt that the proposed improvements will be hastened for-
